Why authorDOCS?

Reviewing and drafting contracts is manual, repetitive and takes up to 70% of a contract departments time. With ever increasing pressure on teams to do more with less, improving contract efficiency, and document consistency can be a serious cost issue. authorDOCS contract automation helps teams spend more time on customer facing tasks, improving business performance, and reduce business risk.

Saves Time

Removes upwards of 60% of the time taken to review and draft contracts.

Reduce Contract Risks

Identify contract issues potentially missed by a human.

Automate Tasks

Eliminates monotonous work, creating a happier and more productive legal team.

Standardize Your contracts

Standardize the way your team looks for and remedies contractual issues.

Improve Collaboration

Enables your team to share standard and fallback positions when drafting and negotiating.
